RE: MUR 5534

Dear Mr. Floyd:

On April 24, 2006, you were notified that the Federal Election Commission found reason to believe that Business Alaska, Inc., violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433, 434(a), 434(b), 434(c), 434(f), 441b and 441d, provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. On July 11, 2006, Business Alaska Inc. submitted a response to the Commission's reason to believe findings and the Commission's Subpoena to Produce Documents and Order to Submit Written Answers. Following an investigation, and after considering the circumstances of the matter, the Commission determined on July 14, 2009 to take no further action as to Business Alaska, Inc., in an exercise of its prosecutorial discretion, and closed the file in this matter. See Heckler v. Chaney, 470 U.S. 821 (1985).

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Statement of Policy Regarding Disclosure of Closed Enforcement and Related Files, 68 Fed. Reg. 70,426 (Dec. 18, 2003). A Factual and Legal Analysis further explaining the basis for the Commission's decision will follow.
